

WILDFLOWER SOCIETY
OF WA (INC.)

EASTERN HILLS BRANCH

June 2020 Quiz

P. Hussey and F. Lebel

1. To what plant does this flower belong to?

It can grow up to 6 meters tall.

Give the scientific name.

Give the common name.

a. Scientific name: 1 point

b. Common name: 1 point

2.

a. What is the scientific name of this plant?

b. Give its two common names.

a. Scientific name: 1 point

b. Common name: 1 point

c. Common name: 1 point

3. What is the scientific name of this plant?

What is the common name of this plant?

a. Scientific name: 1 point

b. Common name: 1 point

4. This tiny star is the only one of its genus with four petals. Can you name it?

Name: 1 point

5. Fuchsia Grevillea has distinctive leaves.

What is the scientific name and what does it mean?

Name and meaning:
2 points

6.

a. What is this plant's scientific name?

b. What is its common name?

a. Scientific name: 1 point

b. Common name: 1 point

7.

a. What is the scientific name of this plant?

b. What is its common name?

a. Scientific name: 1 point

b. Common name: 1 point

8.

a. What are these structures?

b. What FAMILY is this plant in?

c. What did early European settlers use the fuzz at the base for?

a. Name structures: 1 point

b. Family name: 1 point

c. Used for: 1 point

9. This type of bark is found on several WA shrubs and mallees.

What is it called?

1 point

10. Name this plant.

It is a small tree found in shadier Hills valleys.

Name of plant: 2 points